Executive coaching facilitated by Amber Mayes:

Being a leader is probably one of the hardest jobs there is. The responsibility to guide and shape an organization's success is daunting and yet can be the most rewarding, fulfilling experience if done with awareness, skill and passion. Amber Mayes coaches leaders to get to the core of their challenges and break through to transformative leadership performance. Her experiences and her personal journeys informs her approach and allow her to truly meet you where you are. She won't tell you what to do, but rather engage you in a process that builds your own awareness, confidence, skills and excitement allowing you to lead with superior results. She believes that the people you lead will only go as far they are willing to go. Accordingly, her executive coaching process begins and ends with you. You will learn a tremendous amount about yourself in the process that will not only prepare you to be a better leader, but will also bring more fulfillment to your life as a whole. They say it's lonely at the top. Let Amber Mayes accompany you in your journey as you break through to the thrill of executive excellence!
